The Statement of Advice sets out the personal advice given to you, including any recommendations about particular financial products and the basis on which those recommendations are made

The Statement of Advice will provide information on the amount of any commissions and other fees payable in respect of financial products recommended to you in connection with this advice.

Statement of Additional Advice (SOAA)

The Statement of Additional Advice will also provide information on the amount of any commissions and other fees payable in respect of financial products recommended to you in connection with that advice.

Record of Small Investment Advice (RSIA)

If you receive advice where the total investment value in relation to that advice is less than $15,000 you will not receive a Statement of Advice but will be given a Record of Small Investment Advice. The Record of Small Investment Advice is a concise document containing the following information:

- Brief particulars of the recommendations and the basis for those recommendations;

Fees and Remuneration

Your Authorised Representative is a professional adviser who receives payment for the advice and services they provide. These payments are used to fund the cost of such things as:

- Ongoing education and development for the adviser;
- Running a business, including office rental, phone/fax, internet, stationery etc; and
- Providing an income for the adviser.

Your adviser will receive remuneration either by charging you a fee for service, receiving commissions, or a combination of both. Details of all fees will be clearly documented in the Statement of Advice you receive.

Fee for service only – Fees are charged according to the work undertaken by your adviser and may be charged on an hourly basis or as a flat fee. A fee may be charged for the initial work in developing and implementing a strategy, as well as for ongoing monitoring and reviews. Under a fee for service agreement, initial and ongoing commissions will generally be rebated back to you. A typical rate for fee for service arrangements is between $200 and $250 per hour plus GST.

Commission only – Your adviser may be remunerated for the services they provide by receiving commission. Commission rates vary greatly between products and providers. The following table illustrates the ranges of initial and ongoing commission payable for each product type. The example transactions illustrate the dollar range of commission that would be payable at both the low and high level. The Statement of Advice provided to you by your adviser will illustrate each level of commission applicable to your situation.

Commission Type and Product Type	Commission Range		Example Transaction	Dollar Range
	Low	High		Low	High
Initial Investment	0%	5%	$100,000	$0	$5,000
Ongoing Investment	0%	2%	$150,000	$0	$3,000
Initial Insurance	20%	120%	$1,250	$250	$1,500
Ongoing Insurance	5%	33%	$1,250	$62.50	$413
Initial Aggri Business	5%	12%	$40,000	$2,000	$4,800
Ongoing Aggri Business	0%	0%	$40,000	$0	$0

Please note that commissions are not an additional charge to you. Commissions are paid by the product provider from the fees paid on your investment, or from the premium you pay for your insurance.

All fees and commissions are paid directly to InterPrac Financial Planning on a fortnightly, monthly or quarterly basis. InterPrac retain a percentage in the range 10% to 20% of the fee income generated by each Authorised Representative. InterPrac then pay the net income to the Authorised Representative on a bi-monthly basis.

Referral Fees

InterPrac Financial Planning Pty Ltd and its Authorised Representatives work closely with many professional people and organisations such as accountants and solicitors. Where we receive referrals from these sources, they may be paid a referral fee. Referral fees are not a separate charge to you, they are paid from the fees received by InterPrac.
